

Snacking on Shakespeare

When: Mondays at 3pm for 1 hour.

Meet on Zoom. No experience necessary. Join to read or listen.

Snacking on Shakespeare is delivered by Mary Chater, an actress with 35 years' experience in TV and theatre, including the RSC, West End and the National Theatre. Mary started her company www.shakespeareinitaly.org.uk with her husband Julian Curry and now supports Volunteering Matters as well as working as an actress. Mary says; 'I love theatre and I just want to share it in all its forms'.

In this weekly workshop, Mary will look at sections of Shakespeare's plays and together you can read through or just listen and discuss meaning.

If you are curious, interested or just fancy a go please call the number below and we will send you a link. All welcome.
